The Sandstone Labyrinth & Cairn III

The Road of the Wagons

I. The Arches of the West Wind

In the north-east highlands the west wind has carved a forest of pillars, narrow fissures and great stone arches. The BC Ashes fled this way with their heavy wagons, and the wind has since swept away every track. Beyond the maze waits Cairn III, and beneath its copper plate sleeps the third seal.

The Sandstone Labyrinth seen from above. Only one road leads from the mouth to the Cairn.

II. The Tablet at the Mouth

«One road crosses the stone, and the wagons took it. Eight arches stand upon that road, and each keeps a single letter. Walk from the mouth of the labyrinth to the Cairn and read the arches in the order you pass them. The arches that stand beside the road are false.»

The Sigil of Cairn III:

1	2	3	4	5	6	7	8

Speak the Sigil at Cairn III, beneath its copper plate, to win the third seal.

Follow the road, not the wind.
