The Oracle's Horizon

The Three Mirrors of the Triangulation

I. The Oracle's Parchment

In the sanctum of Tower II the Desert Oracle unrolls the parchment of the Order. «Tower I, in the snow, told you WHAT. Here, in the stone, you learned WHERE. Now send these eight beacons east, over the three mirrors of the horizon, and they will show you the way to the Stage.»

The three ancient towers send their beams to the same hidden point.

II. The Three Mirrors of the Horizon

1. Beacons 1 to 8 are reflected in Mirror I, then in Mirror II, then in Mirror III.
2. A mirror throws a beacon to the other side, as far behind it as it stood in front. An upright mirror keeps the row; the flat mirror keeps the column.
3. Read the letter where each beacon finally lands, from 1 to 8. They are the Sigil of the Oracle.

The Sigil of the Oracle:

1	2	3	4	5	6	7	8

Speak the Sigil to the Oracle to open the road to the Stage.

The road ends where the curtain rises.
