The Sandstone Labyrinth

Game D1 · Tracking the Raider Caravans across the High Terraces

I. Expedition Objective

Navigate the treacherous fissure network across the northern plateaus. Follow the tracks of the raiders' wagons between the natural sandstone arches and identify the true crossing before the winds erase all trace.

II. Rules of the Waste & Caravan Anatomy

ROTA FERRATA
Raider Axle Study

Follow the wagon wheel-ruts through the sandstone corridors without doubling back across loose scree.

Each archway passed yields a directional glyph: record their sequence in your Cipher Ledger.

The true exit aligns precisely with Cairn II and the 348° NNW solar azimuth of the northern tableland.
